

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, October 13 1703.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated October 18.

Madrid, Sept. 19.

ON the 15th of this Month the King went from hence at 6 in the Morning for Toledo, where after he had made the Queen Dowager a Visit, he took a review of 5 Regiments of Horse, encamp'd on the Plain of Toledo, and which exercis'd in his presence; At Night his Majesty return'd hither, and coming late the Corrigidor caus'd Torches to be plac'd from Getafe to this City, which is 2 long Leagues, to light him to his Palace. On the 15th of next Month the Cardinal d'Etrees will set out on his return to France. Cardinal Portocarrero demands leave to retire to his Archbishoprick of Toledo, alledging his want of Health will not allow him to attend publick business any longer. They write from Carthage in the Kingdom of Murcia, that on the appearance of the English and Dutch Fleet, Don Carlos de St. Gil the Viceroy caus'd all the Gentlemen and Militia to take Arms to the number of 14000 Men, who kept moving along the Coast till the Enemy were out of sight. On the 3d of this Month 5 of the Enemies Boats came into the Harbour of Almeria with intent to carry off a Man of War and other Ships, but Don Lucas de Cordona Lieutenant General, the Bishop and his Clergy, with the Troops, made so great a Fire upon them from the Shore, that they were oblig'd to retire. The Noblesse and People of Valencia have likewise given evidence of their Zeal for his Majesty's Service, having offer'd the Marquefs de Garcia their Viceroy to hazard their Estates and Persons in opposing the Enemy, if they should make any attempt on that Coast. 4 Ships of that Fleet put into Altea for fresh Water. The Gentlemen of Valencia have offer'd to levy at their own Charge a Regiment of 600 Men to serve the King wherever they shall be order'd. On Advice that the Archduke Charles of Austria is coming for Lisbon, his Majesty has held a Council, to take necessary Measures in such a Juncture.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 18.

Milan, Sept. 27. Some Troops are sent to reinforce the Garrison of Final, it being fear'd the English and Dutch Fleet will make an Attempt on that Place. There is a Report, that the Duke of Savoy is inclin'd to be Neuter in this War, but that the King of France has signified to him, that he will not consent to it, at least unless he will Disarm and Disband all his Troops. Our Senate has been assembled to consider of assigning Winter Quarters and furnishing Subsistence to 15000 Men which the King of France has made over to the King of Spain, as has been demanded of them; but after due Deliberation on this Affair, they have remitted it to the Council of Italy at Madrid, to which they remonstrate at the same time that this State cannot support so heavy a Burden. The French are rebuilding the Fortifications of Casal, in which 2000 Men are actually employ'd.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 6.

Paris, October 6. 'Tis confirm'd that the Duke of Vendome has disarm'd and made Prisoners 6000

Men of the Troops of the Duke of Savoy that serv'd in the Army of the 2 Crowns: 'Tis said likewise, that the Duke of Vendome has put a Garrison into Vercell, and that the King has demanded of the Duke of Savoy Suze for a Pledge of his Fidelity. Some Letters advise, that the Duke of Savoy by way of Reprisal has caus'd our Ambassador at Turin and 130 Officers to be seiz'd; if it be true no doubt his Ambassador will be seiz'd here. The Couriers that were going to our Army in Lombardy are return'd to Lions, being stop'd from passing through Savoy. 'Tis believ'd likewise that the Duke of Savoy has declar'd War against us.

Other Advices, relating to this Affair, that came from Switzerland, &c. may be found at length in the Supplement to the Courant publish'd Yesterday.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 18.

Paris, Oct. 8. 'Tis reported the King has sent Order to the Marthal de Tallard either to Besiege or Bombard Landau, and that all the Troops which are in the 3 Bishopricks of Mets Toul and Verdun, are moving to reinforce his Army: Our last Letters from Madrid say, that the Garrison of Badajoz is reinforced to 6000 Men, and that there are 4000 Horse canton'd in the Neighbourhood of that Place.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 20.

Hamburg, Oct. 16. The chief Articles of the Treaty lately concluded between the Kings of Prussia and Sweden, are said to be in substance, these following.

1. The King of Sweden acknowledges the Elector of Brandenburg to be King of Prussia.
2. Both the Kings shall with joynt endeavours maintain the Protestant Religion, to which end their Ministers at the Diet of the Empire shall act unanimously in promoting the Interest of the Evangelical Body.
3. The Differences touching the Limits in Pomerania, shall be determin'd by Commissioners nam'd on both sides.
4. The King of Prussia shall give no Assistance to the King of Poland; but in case the Republick shall declare in favour of her King against his Swedish Majesty, his Prussian Majesty by Virtue of the Treaty of Oliva shall assist the King of Sweden.
5. No separate Peace shall be made, till the King of Sweden has receiv'd satisfaction, either of the Republick or King of Poland.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 18.

From the Camp of the Prussians before Gelder, Oct. 12. On the 6th of this Month all our Batteries being ready for Bombarding this Place, the Count de Lottum our Commander in chief, summon'd it by a Trumpeter to Surrender, offering the Garrison an honourable Capitulation; But the Governour return'd Answer, That he was resolv'd to defend it to the last Extremity. Upon which, on the 7th betimes in the Morning we began to fire upon the Place from 3 Batteries, on which were planted 51 Pieces of heavy Cannon, about 20 Culverins, and Mortars, in proportion, and held on till the Afternoon of the 8th, when half the Town was laid in Ashes. Then General Lottum summon'd them again, but to no purpose; whereupon he order'd the Bombardment to be continued rinned on the 9th with greater Violence than before; which the Governour perceiving beat a Parley, and desir'd 9 days time to send an Express to Brussels for leave to deliver up the Place; but our General answer'd, that positively he would not allow him any other Terms, than that he and his Garrison should yield themselves Prisoners of War. The Place is almost all reduc'd to a heap of Rubbish, particularly the great Church, the Town-house, and the other principal Buildings; the Bombardment goes on, and we have plac'd more Artillery on our Batteries to ruin quite their Windmills and Watermills. When that is done we shall cease bombarding the Place, and only keep it close block'd up, in hopes it will quickly be oblig'd to Surrender for want of Provisions, it being very probable that what they had is spoil'd by our Bombs and red-hot Bullets.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Oct. 18.

Hague, Oct. 17. Messieurs Van Gent, Dyck, Wellant, and du Tour, chosen out of the Body of the States General, to compliment the King of Spain at his arrival on the Frontier of the State; set out this Morning to go and receive him at Schencken Schans. The Gentlemen appointed to receive him on the part of the States of Holland and Westfriseland, will set out to morrow to meet him on the edge of this Province at Gorcum. Orders are sent to the Governours of all the Places through which his Catholick Majesty is to pass to welcome him with their Artillery.
